Bradley Attorney Niya McCray Earns Certified Information Privacy Professional Credential

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (Nov. 30, 2017) – Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that Niya T. McCray, an attorney in the firm's Birmingham office, has earned the Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP/US) credential in the United States through the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP).

"We congratulate Niya on her achievement as a Certified Information Privacy Professional and for her ongoing commitment to furthering Bradley's leadership in privacy and data protection matters," said Bradley Chairman of the Board and Managing Partner Beau Grenier.

A member of Bradley's Litigation and Cybersecurity and Privacy Practice Groups, Ms. McCray previously was an intern with the in-house legal departments of Bridgestone and USAA, where her work involved researching complex legal issues and drafting briefs, memoranda and presentations. She earned her J.D. from Vanderbilt University Law School (VLS), where she received the VLS Scholastic Excellence Award for her performance in Information Privacy and was inducted into the Phi Delta Phi Legal Honor Society. She also was a Chancellor's Scholar and the first three-time recipient of the Senator Avon N. Williams Jr. and Hon. Robert Lillard Law School Scholarship. Ms. McCray received her Bachelor of Arts from Vanderbilt University.

Accredited by the American National Standards Institute, the CIPP is recognized as a leading, global privacy and data protection credentialing program. The CIPP/US designates professionals who demonstrate a strong foundation in U.S. private-sector privacy laws and regulations and understanding of the legal requirements for the responsible transfer of sensitive personal data to/from the United States, the European Union and other jurisdictions.
